ANTI-DRUG COMMITTEE

Academic Year 2026 – 2027

Objective / Aim

- To motivate students to actively participate as volunteers in Anti-Drug awareness initiatives and uphold a drug-free lifestyle throughout their lives.
- To promote awareness among students about the significance of maintaining a drug-free and healthy campus environment.
- The Anti-Drug Committee serves as a proactive body aimed at spreading awareness, preventing drug abuse, and encouraging a healthy, drug-free lifestyle among students.
- To build a responsible, healthy, and fit younger generation committed to fighting against drug abuse.

Associated Activities / Functions

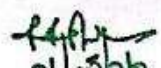

- To educate students on the harmful effects of drugs, alcohol, and other substance-abuse practices.
- To encourage peer vigilance and motivate students to report any suspected drug-related activities to the student volunteers or members of the Anti-Drug Committee.

- To organize awareness programmes, campaigns, rallies, and workshops within the campus and hostels in collaboration with authorized agencies, health professionals, and government organizations.
